Bulkington Parish Council Privacy Notice

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

Bulkington Parish Council is a data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

Bulkington Parish Council complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by:

- keeping personal data up to date
- storing and destroying personal data securely
- not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of personal data
- protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure
- ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- • To enable us to perform our duties as a Parish Council
- To manage our employees and councillors
- To maintain our own accounts and records

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

We hold small amounts of personal data such as correspondence, parish electoral roll, contact details of councillors and employees. These details are held for "legitimate interest" purposes - we need names, addresses and email addresses to be able to correspond, or on a "legal obligation" basis – we have to keep records for payroll, electoral roll, etc., because of other legislation.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as confidential and will only be shared with other parties with consent or if we are obliged to do so because of other legislation.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance and regulations set by other bodies and we keep correspondence for up to 7 years. Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which we hold about you.
- The right to request that we correct any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for us to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent (if you have previously provided it) to the processing of your personal data at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller,
